Short Description

Three Valley Gap is a ghost town made up of abandoned buildings and artifacts of the past. But within these walls also lurks strange paranormal occurrences and tortured spirits.

Long Description

The ghost town of Three Valley Gap rests in the shadows of a towering valley and is made up of abandoned buildings and artifacts of a time long forgotten. But something, or someone, has come with the collection, giving the space an intense energy linked to a dark and sorrowful history.

During the investigation, Jeff senses that they are being watched and connects with a spirit haunted by unresolved regret, known as the hesitant man. Can the team help him reach the other side?

EP902 – ALLEY OF THE DEAD

Fan Tan Alley is a storied street in Victoria's Chinatown that is full of many spirits; some who want to hide and others waiting to be found.

Short Description

Fan Tan Alley is a legendary street in Canada's oldest Chinatown. It's place of secrets and old stories that have mostly remained untold. But of all the thousands of families who have made Chinatown their home, one family miraculously finds a way to reconnect.

Long Description

Our team ventures into Fan Tan Alley, a narrow stretch of alley tucked within Canada's oldest Chinatown in Victoria, BC. After encountering a spirit that communicates with only a few words of warning, they decide to invite Nelles, a local Chinese elder, into the second night's session to translate messages of welcoming and merge Chinese and indigenous traditions together.

When Nelles joins the team, they discover that the spirits have a lot more to say – to her directly.

EP 903 – HEADLESS HORROR

The ghost town of Sandon has been powered by a Tesla generator since the 1890s. But, as the team discovers, it may also be powering the spirits.

Short Description

The ghost city of Sandon, BC was once a thriving mining community but now it stands abandoned. Known as the Valley of the Ghosts, Sandon's ghastly history can be told through the spirits that haunt its empty buildings.

Long Description

Sandon, BC was once a thriving mining community, but when the mining work dried up it was abandoned for better opportunities – only those that died a grisly death still linger through the empty buildings.

Known by locals as the Valley of the Ghosts, Sandon's history is dotted by stories of individuals who have taken their own lives or died in various tragedies. During their investigation, the team thinks they've encountered the spirit of a local legend known as Headless Eric, but quickly realize it's another lost soul deviously set on pulling them into something dark. Will they be able to help the spirits that are stuck on this earthly plane? Or are they destined to roam the eerie and empty woodland valley forever?

EP 904 – THEY COME FROM THE SOUTH

Sinixt Nation has a long history of repatriating ancestors remains, but some lost spirits linger and need the team to help guide them home.

Short Description

Marilyn is the caretaker of the ancestral lands of the Sinixt Nation and is honored to share space with the spirits that exist within the quiet woodland. She asks the team to help her connect with her ancestors to ask them the questions she is dying to have answers to.

Long Description

Marilyn is a matriarch and the keeper of the ancestral lands of the Sinixt Nation. It's a job she is honoured to take on and approaches it with humility and respect. Knowing there are remains that have recently been returned to the land, the team looks to make peaceful connections with the spirits that tether the past to the present.

What draws the ancestors into the circle is linked to tradition through noise makers and song. It's through this deeply meaningful connection that Marilyn discovers her journey to protect the waters and the land is not a lonely one. With help from Jeff, Shanley, and Lee, Marilyn receives a message of hope and reassurance (is there a shorter word? From her ancestors that the work she is doing is valued.

EP 905 – COLD HAND OF DEATH

The ghosts of both a playful little girl and a menacing spirit confront the team at Fort Steele.

Short Description

Fort Steele is a heritage site that connects visitors in the present to the stories of the past. But with several rumours of the ghost of a little girl often seen playing around the grounds, the Team decides it's time to investigate.

Long Description

Fort Steele, BC is a heritage site that welcomes visitors to learn about the history of the land they stand on. After multiple stories about ghostly sightings of a little girl playing around the vicarage, the team feels they have the intuitive and spiritual abilities to reach through the veil and connect with the spirits that haunt the old town.

It seems, however, that the spirits would much rather talk to someone they know and trust – someone like Chase, a historic guide from the heritage site. Relying on the connection established through Chase, the first night leads to intense reactions and curiosity that spills into night two. But Lee gives words of caution – too much, too quickly can have dire consequences.

EP 906 – TICKET TO TERROR

The team visits a train station with a deadly past and well known for its paranormal activity, can they survive a night inside?

Short Description

Every time the team investigates a new space they smudge and enter with respect for the histories and potential spirits locked inside. But at the Port Moody Station Museum, a place with a deadly past, they learn a smudge can't always keep them safe.

Long Description

The Port Moody Train Station in Vancouver has seen people come and go through its doors for generations. But after a train crash that took the lives of five people, the train station has seemingly become a place for many apparitions trying to find their way to the other side.

By ringing an old train bell, the team hopes to draw something into their circle. But what they quickly realize is that they attracted something far more menacing than they had thought possible. After an attempt to engage, they begin to think that maybe they may have bitten off more than they can chew.

EP 907 – MURDER RANCH

An infamous hotel from BC's wild west has witnessed nearly 60 ghastly murders, leaving many spirits trapped and angry.

Short Description

108 Mile Ranch in BC has been associated with nearly 60 murders since the 1800s. Such devastation and rage leaves a stain on the land; trapping souls to endlessly wander. The team investigates to try to separate the facts from the fiction.

Long Description

The 108 Mile Ranch now sits as a museum that highlights the darker side of BC's gold rush. With stories of greedy travellers regularly gracing its doorway, its history is dotted with tales of rage, jealousy, abuse, and perhaps as many as 60 murders.

The first night of the investigation leads to unusual meter readings and technology that seemingly reacts to the site host, Kelly, leaving big questions to be answered. Is this ghost angry or just mischievous? And can the team help keep Kelly safe from evil creeping in?

EP 908 – THERE'S SOMETHING WRONG WITH ROOM 15

The Leland Hotel in Nakusp hosts a thin veil between this world and the next, leading to strong energies throughout.

Short Description

The Leland Hotel in Nakusp, BC is well known for its hauntings. And after encountering more than one energy, the team isn't sure if the spirit they are speaking with is either friend or foe.

Long Description

There are some places where the veil between this world and the next is too thin, letting energies seep through. Sometimes they are lost, sometimes they are playful, and sometimes they are angry. At the Leland Hotel in Nakusp, BC, the hauntings and paranormal activities that have been reported over decades of operation tell the story of a place that may be a bridge between us and what's on the other side.

After an intense but confusing first night of investigation, the team brings gifts to room 15 to help lighten the weight of the energies they felt previously. But despite their best efforts, they are still met with an angry and unwelcoming presence.

EP 909 – DARK SHADOWS

Today the Tillicum Health Centre in Nanaimo is a place of healing, but the building has a dark history that still clings to its walls.

Short Description

The Tillicum Health Centre in Nanaimo has a dark history that has left spirits trapped inside its walls. But through traditional medicines and song, the team alongside Lee's friend Joe bring calm to the angry history they've endured.

Long Description

It's a full moon while the team investigates the Tillicum Health Centre in Nanaimo, BC. On the first night, a dark shadow in the doorway leads them to the basement. But whatever draws them there is afraid and is looking for comfort through traditional medicines and song. Lee and his friend Joe, from the Cowichan Tribe (Quw'utsun), perform for the spirits, leading to a real connection.

After lighting a candle in respect and in prayer, the team reaches out to help heal a sorrowful and wounded spirit, who calls himself Walter. Through another traditional song they offer guidance to those who are looking to travel across the bridge.

EP 910 – NIGHTMARE DAYCARE

The team journeys to a haunted daycare in Nanaimo, BC to meet the ghost of a little boy who needs their help.

Short Description

The Beban House in Nanaimo BC is known to be haunted by a little boy. But when more spirits have moved through the veil and appear on night two, the team relies on Lee's calming presence and knowledge to help guide them to the other side.

Long Description

The Beban House has had many purposes, from a family home to an RCMP office, and now serves as a childcare setting. It's a fitting role for a building that is known to be haunted by a small boy, who is often playfully tossing a red ball around in empty rooms. What the team finds, however, is a lot more than the presence of one small boy.

The investigation needs Lee's spiritual guidance and traditional knowledge to help make the spirits inside feel safe enough to reach out. What they discover is a spirit that keeps an eye on the building but needs a bit more guidance to find its way back to the other side.

EP 911 – ECHOES OF TRAGEDY

A tragic bridge disaster still haunts the Point Ellice House in Victoria where many spirits, known and unknown, pass through its walls.

Short Description

The Point Ellice House witnessed a nearby bridge disaster in 1896 where 55 people fell to their deaths. The team wonders if any of those lost souls need help finding their way to the other side and uncover a dark mystery about the home during their investigation.

Long Description

When an overloaded streetcar plummeted into the waters below in 1896, the Point Ellice House in Victoria became the centre of the disaster recovery. 55 people died that day. While the house has since become a museum full of artifacts of times gone by, there are rumours that its previous inhabitants still roam the hallways. The team, however, is curious if the spirits that they encounter come from the horrible accident that took place so many years before or if they have a more direct connection to the house?

On their first night, they meet more than one ghostly presence that seemingly want to connect but appear to be more shy than they had hoped for. What they do find is the spirit of someone the museum staff have never heard of before. Could she be from the bridge disaster? Does she come to the team peacefully? The team heads into a second night of investigation to find out.

EP 912 – SPEAK OF THE DEAD

At a home on the Musqueam Reserve in BC, Jeff and Shanley help a woman speak with the spirits that are bound to her.

Short Description

For one woman living on the Musqueam Reserve in BC, the spirits of her past travel through this world alongside her. She can sense them but needs the support of our investigative team to connect with them.

Long Description

Rachel has a special connection to the spirit world and can feel the souls of her past as they follow through her day-to-day. With the help of Jeff and Shanley, she makes a connection that brings joy and comfort to the home.

Jeff recognizes that Rachel has a natural gift to feel the energy of ghostly presences around her. He encourages Rachel to tap into this natural gift and help guide the spirits that have attached themselves to her through the veil to the other side. But, what if one of them doesn't want to leave her alone?

EP 913 – THE UNEXPECTED GUEST

The Yates Building in Victoria is known for its haunted basement, but are these ghosts friendly or do they mean harm?

Short Description

The Yates Building in Victoria is haunted by something sinister from its infamous past - even the ghosts that are stuck there are afraid. But what scares them on the first night also moves them to tears on the second.

Long Description

The Yates Building in Victoria BC is known for its hauntings. People have talked about feeling watched and even being hunted while in the basement. And, as the team discovers, even the spirits that are trapped in its walls fear something is down there with them.

But there's more to the Yates Building than expected, and after an intense and scary first night of investigation the team isn't sure what they will encounter on the second. But the experience they have leaves them moved to tears and more confident that what they do is as important for those in the earthly world as it is for those on the other side.
