

Moosemeat & Marmalade S07 – Episode Outlines

701 Fishing the Grand (Six Nations, Ont.)

Tagline: Art brings Dan to Six Nations of the Grand River to learn about this proud Haudenosaunee community while going fishing.

Short description: Six Nations of the Grand River is home to all six branches of the Haudenosaunee Confederacy. Art and Dan meet chef Tawnya Brant of Yawékon, explore the Kayanase Native Plant Nursery and visit the site of the Land Back camp.

702 Whistler Ice Fishing (Whistler, B.C.)

Tagline: Art and Dan may not shine at cross-country skiing in Whistler, but they find success with ice-fishing.

Short description: Art and Dan attempt cross-country skiing in Whistler, despite their challenges with staying upright. However, their true success lies in ice-fishing on a nearby lake and foraging at a local indoor farm for fresh ingredients.

703 Westcoast Seal (Tofino, B.C.)

Tagline: Art and Dan explore Nuu-chah-nulth territory, engaging in a harbour seal hunt and Indigenous-led conservation.

Short description: Art and Dan visit Nuu-chah-nulth territory for a harbour seal hunt with master carver Joe Martin. Besides the hunt on the open seas, they meet an activist and educator responsible for acquiring the Naa'Wayá'Sum Coastal Indigenous Gardens.

704: Lobster & Scallops (Digby, N.S.)

Tagline: Art and Dan discover Digby's famous shellfish and meet a world champion scallop shucker.

Short description: Art and Dan set sail for a day of fishing on the Bear River Nation's lobster boat in Bay of Fundy. Dan manages the lobster traps, while Art enjoys the smooth sea. Later, they join local expert Lisa Johnson to forage for dulce on Victoria Beach.

705 Urban Feast (Toronto, Ont.)

Tagline: Art takes Dan to Toronto to explore how the urban Indigenous community keeps their culture alive.

Short description: In the heart of Toronto, Art introduces Dan to the urban Indigenous community's expertise in foraging, sourcing game meat and preserving cultural traditions amidst the city's hustle. They also explore Indigenous food joints that are gaining recognition.

706 Halifax Halibut (Halifax, N.S.)

Tagline: Art and Dan explore the sights, taste the unique flavours and experience the culinary traditions of Nova Scotia.

Short description: Art and Dan can't resist sampling the local seafood in Halifax. They venture out on a commercial fishing boat to go handlining for cod, with Dan unexpectedly catching halibut. Back on land, Dan prepares a delightful seafood medley and beer-battered asparagus.

707 McLeod Lake Burbot (McLeod Lake, B.C.)

Tagline: Art and Dan visit McLeod Lake Indian Band, a Tse'khene community, to learn a bit about their history.

Short description: Art and Dan arrive at McLeod Lake Indian Band, a Tse'khene community, to learn a bit about their history. They fish for burbot, also known locally as "ling," an ancient deep-water fish commonly found in nearby Carp Lake.

708 Fishing in Stockholm (Stockholm, Sweden)

Tagline: Art and Dan explore the heart of Sweden's capital, Stockholm, fishing in both its waterways and its markets.

Short description: In the heart of Stockholm, Dan and Art enjoy a unique experience fishing from the steps of the Royal Palace. However, their real success comes from foraging for fish and fresh produce at the Östermalms Saluhall Market.

709 Babine Coho (Lake Babine, B.C.)

Tagline: Art and Dan head to remote parts of Lake Babine territory for some world-class fly-in fishing.

Short description: Amidst a warm welcome from the Babine Lake Drummers and children dancing by the fire, Art and Dan take off on a helicopter flight to explore the remote corners of Lake Babine territory, where access is only possible by boat or aircraft.

710 Swedish Beaver (Grangärde, Sweden)

Tagline: Dan takes Art to Sweden to visit an old school friend and take him hunting for a familiar prey: the beaver.

Short description: Dan takes Art to Sweden to visit his old school friend, Oliver, whose mother has a rustic country home in Sweden's lake district. They are intrigued to find that the area is an ideal habitat for another old friend: the beaver.

711 Swedish Moose (Grangärde, Sweden)

Tagline: Art's fascination with Swedish moose leads to an invitation to a Swedish-style moose hunt.

Short description: Art's fascination with Swedish moose secures him an invite to a Swedish-driven moose hunt, but first, he and Dan must pass a challenging shooting test. In the end, only Dan succeeds, marking his first moose hunt with thrill.

712 Capercaillie (Orsa, Sweden)

Tagline: Dan and Art embark on a suspenseful hunt for Sweden's native black grouse, a tense and thrilling adventure.

Short description: Dan introduces Art to their guide, Samuel, for a thrilling hunt. They follow Samuel's dog, Mitzy, through the forests in pursuit of black grouse. The hunt becomes tense, and finally, Mitzy's bark signals the successful 'treeing' of their prey.

713 Malahat Surf & Turf (Malahat, B.C.)

Tagline: Dan and Art explore the economic ventures of Malahat First Nation territory while enjoying hunting, fishing and cooking.

Short description: After trying canoe racing, Art and Dan tour the economic joint ventures of Malahat First Nation. While Art has no luck hunting deer, Dan successfully bags a couple of pigeons for their culinary adventure.